CLINICAL RADIOLOGY EARLY CAREER RESEARCHERS PRIZE

For trainees and Fellows (within five years post-Fellowship) in Clinical Radiology

The Clinical Radiology Early Career Researchers Prize is available to eligible trainees and Fellows (up to five years post-Fellowship) in clinical radiology. Please refer to the Early Career Researchers Prize Guidelines for the eligibility criteria.

The purpose of the Early Career Researchers Prize is to recognise a clinical radiology trainee or Fellow (up to five years post-Fellowship) who is the first author of a paper which has been accepted for publication by the Journal of Medical Imaging and Radiation Oncology (JMIRO) or another Medline Indexed peer-reviewed journal. This prize provides candidates with a greater incentive for excellence, and a sense of achievement.

PLEASE NOTE:

- You must be the first author of a research manuscript which has been accepted for publication by JMIRO or another Medline Indexed peer-reviewed journal
- You must be a registered clinical radiology trainee of the College's accredited training program, or Fellow (up to five years post-Fellowship) and a financial member of the College
- All sections of the application form must be completed, and the form must be signed
- Supplementary documents must be attached to this application
